AN ACT

For the relief of Earl T. Briley.

October 15, 1962
[H. R. 10415]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Earl T. Briley of Shelbyville, Indiana, is relieved of liability to pay to the United States the sum of $331.17, representing the aggregate amount of salary overpayments received by him from the United States Post Office Department during the period beginning June 29, 1957, and ending January 6, 1961, which overpayments were made as a result of administrative error in granting a longevity promotion on the basis of his former position as postal clerk rather than on the basis of his position as foreman. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Earl T. Briley.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Earl T. Briley, the sum of any payments received or withheld from him on account of the overpayment referred to in the first section of this Act: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
